CREATIVE WORKS DISTRIBUTION NETWORK

KiNo releases free iPhone App that streams full album and videos to fans.

KiNo - the 21st century poet of sound and image, one of the most innovative independents in creative fields of music, film and literature - is releasing his iPhone application 'Creative Works Distribution Network' this week.

In a first, the app will allow music lovers to use their iPhone/iPod Touch to listen, watch, share and/or buy the KiNo debut album "Map of the Universe" as well as follow the updates on his 'creative works distribution network' as free subscribers.

The application is absolutely free and no apple id is necessary to install.
